

In this intensive, we allow time and space to enter and open our hearts and our attention, into the deep fruitful dark womb of the Earth, and the vastness of the generative imaginative cosmos.

We are participant players in the heart of creation shaping a shared reality, and creatively participating in a contemporary culture of awakening.

This is a time of letting go, shedding old skin realities and cultural spells, AND a time of receiving inner inspiration connected to planetary wisdom, and the seeds gestating in your human heart and soul that are ready for this time of evolutionary change.

WHAT WE WILL DO?

In deep long movement dives, we breathe, slow down, sound, listen, feel, rest into spacious silence, and deepen our capacity for fluid grounded embodiment of our creative envisioning.

From the depths of silence we may expand in the vastness, weep with grief, or dance with wild abandon joy.

For our vision quest allnighter we will adorn the room with shamanic textiles to stimulate the imaginal, psyche processes, and to support our dreamtime journeys for healing and envisioning.

We will co-create dreamtime ceremony to enter the mystery as we join those—visible and invisible—who tend the indigenous soul and beauty of this world.
